

Getting to the Core

English Language Arts

Grade 6 Unit of Study

“Plugging into Propaganda”

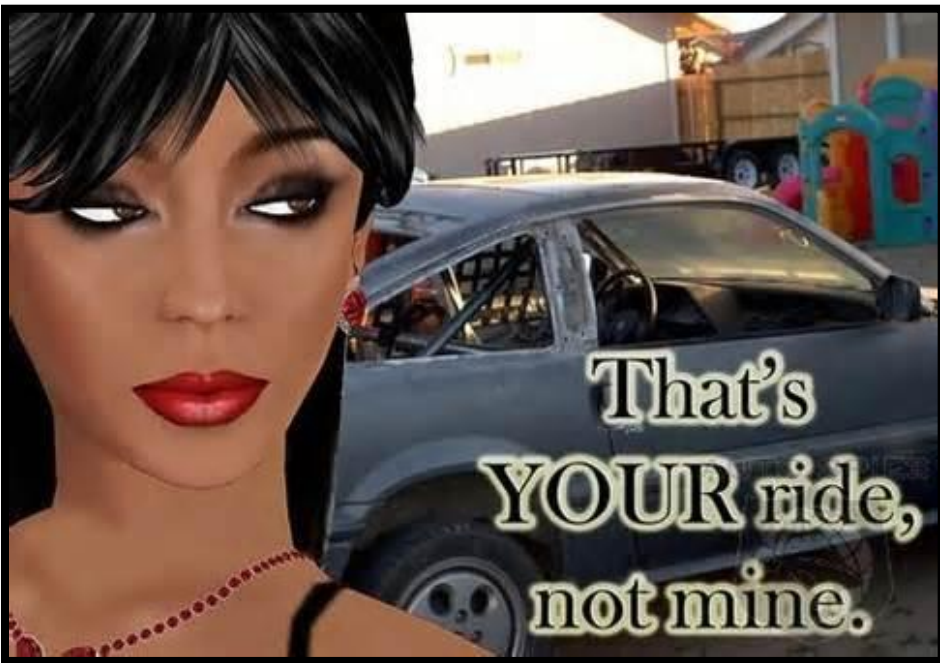

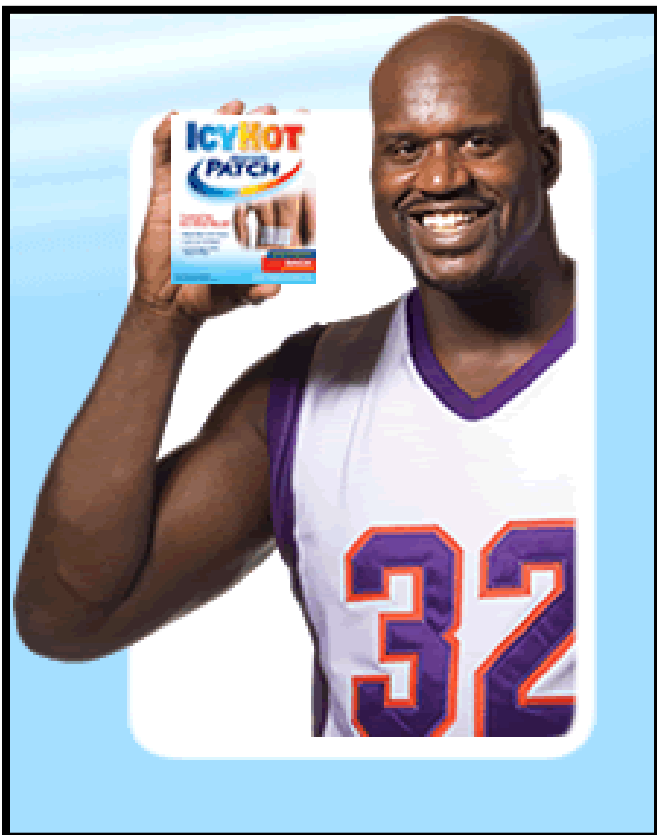

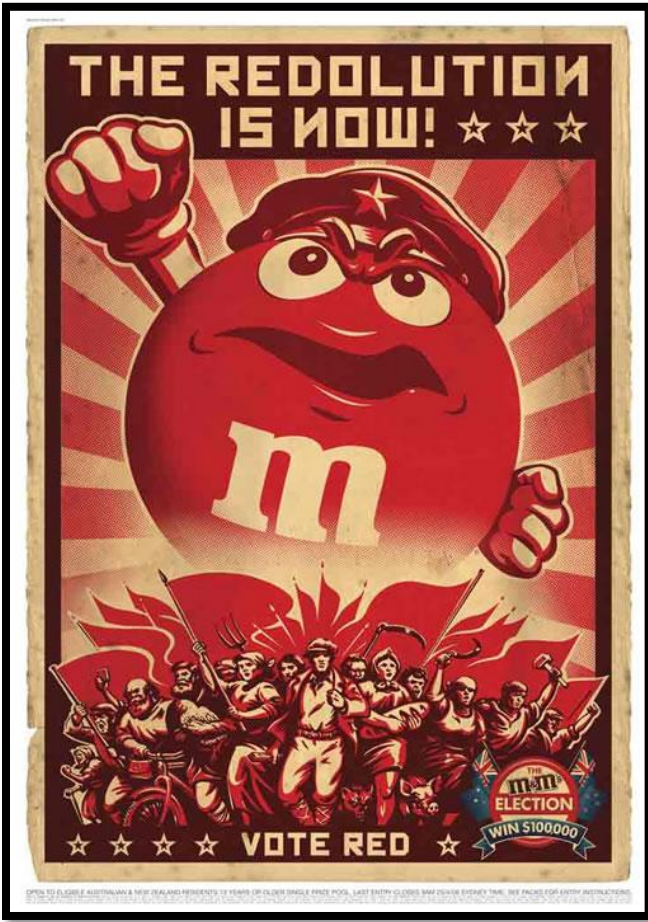

Final Revision: March 17, 2014

ADDITIONAL TEACHER RESOURCES

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

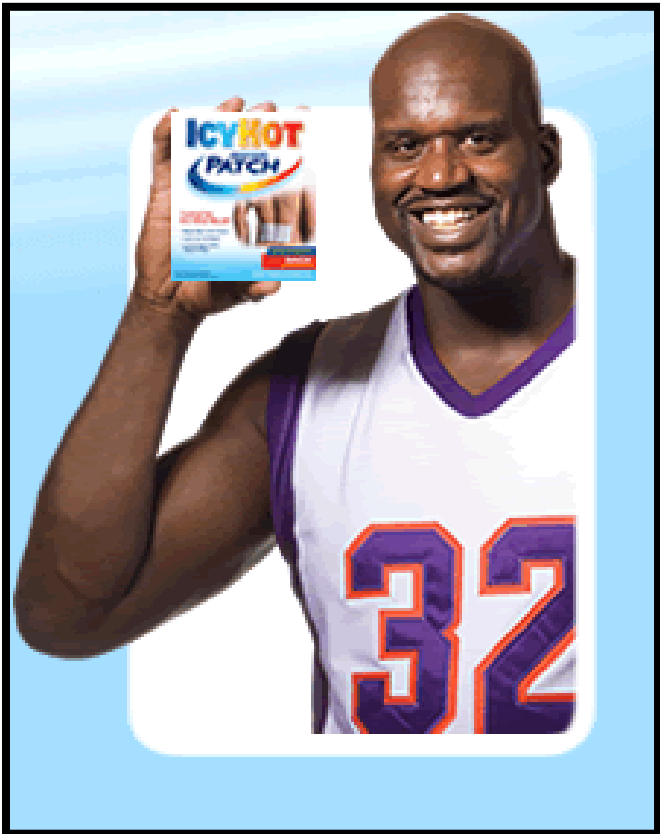

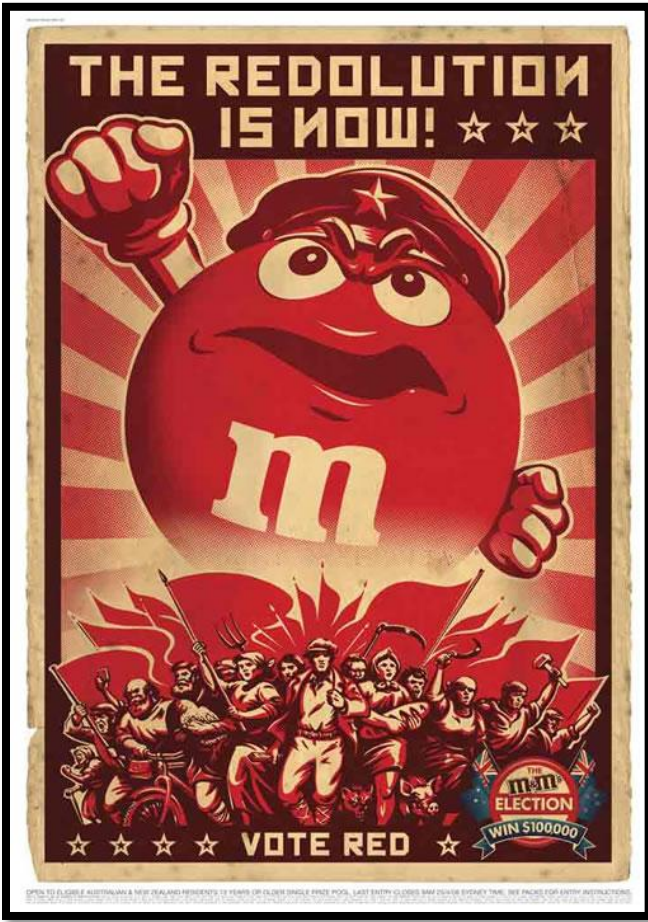

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

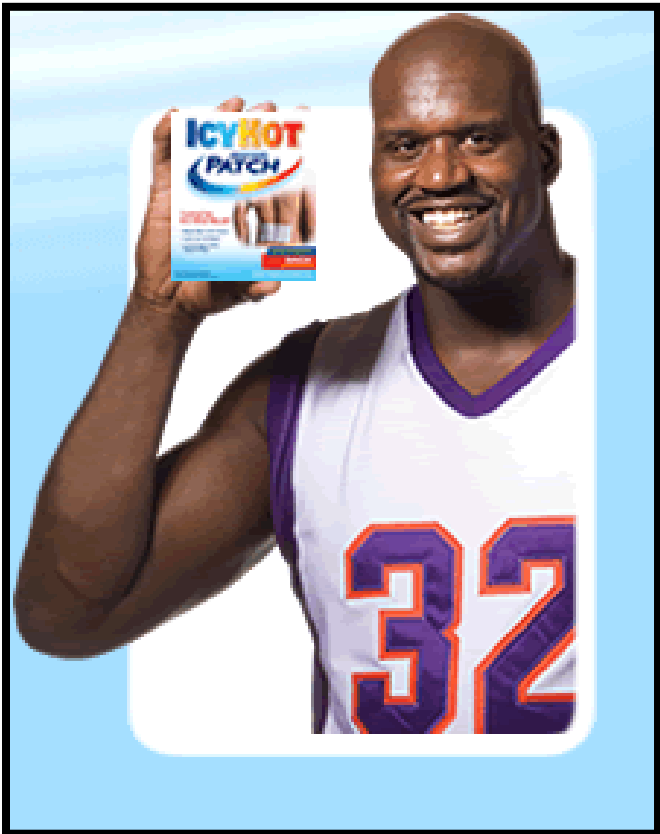

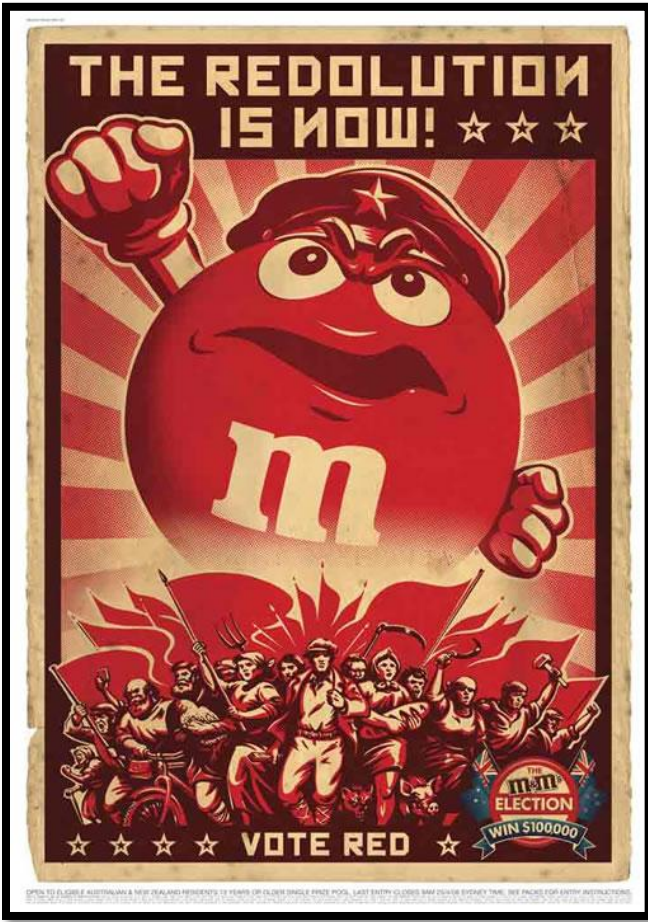

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

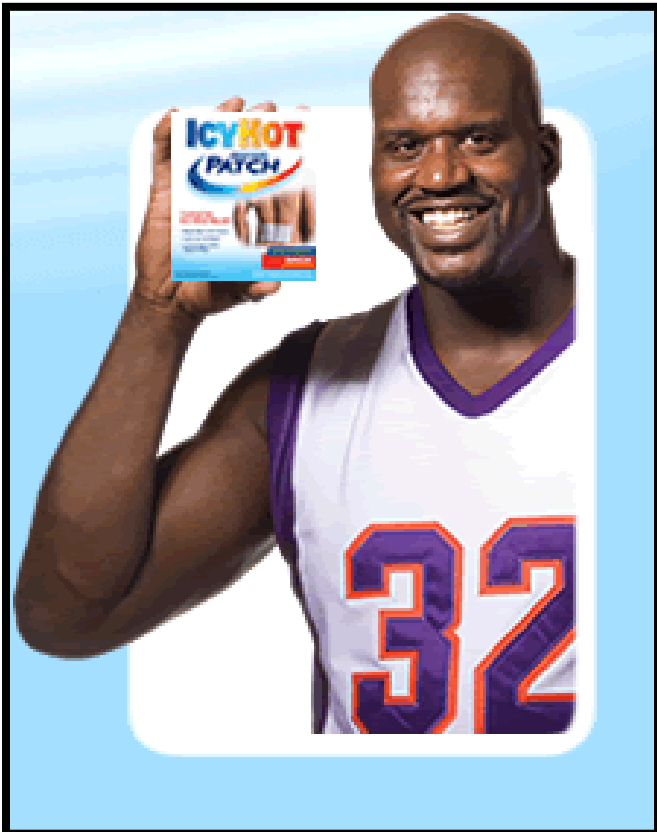

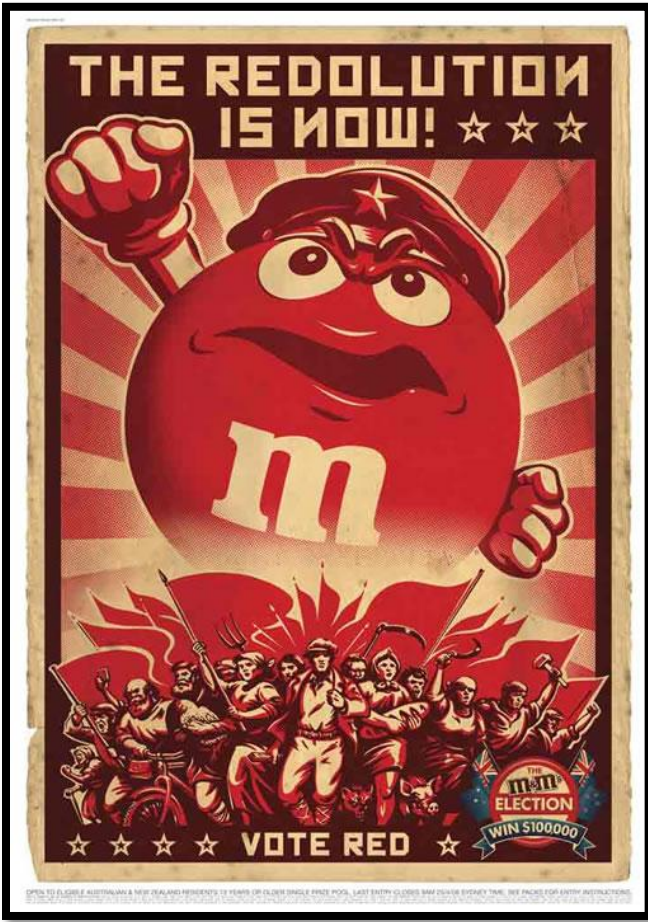

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

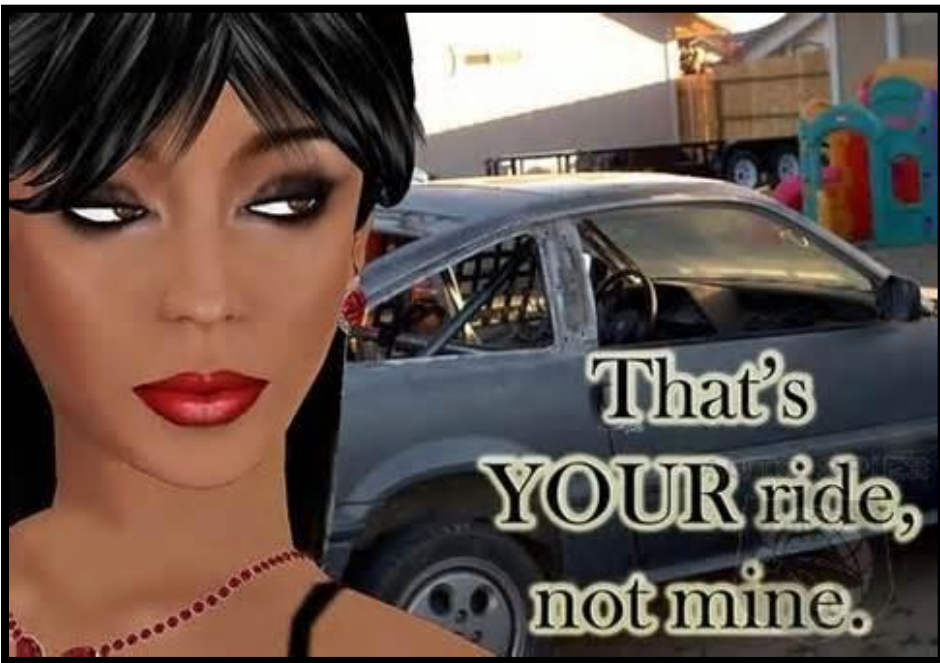

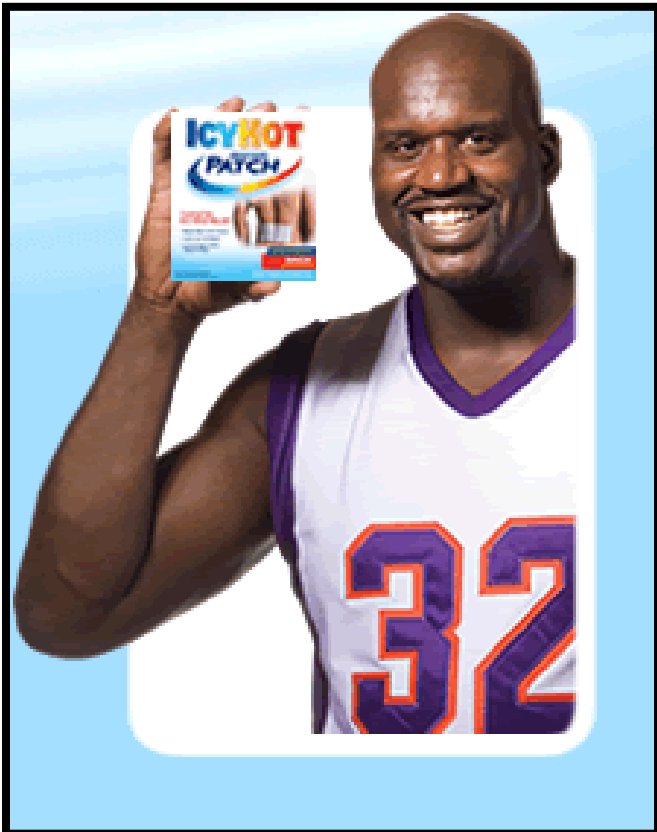

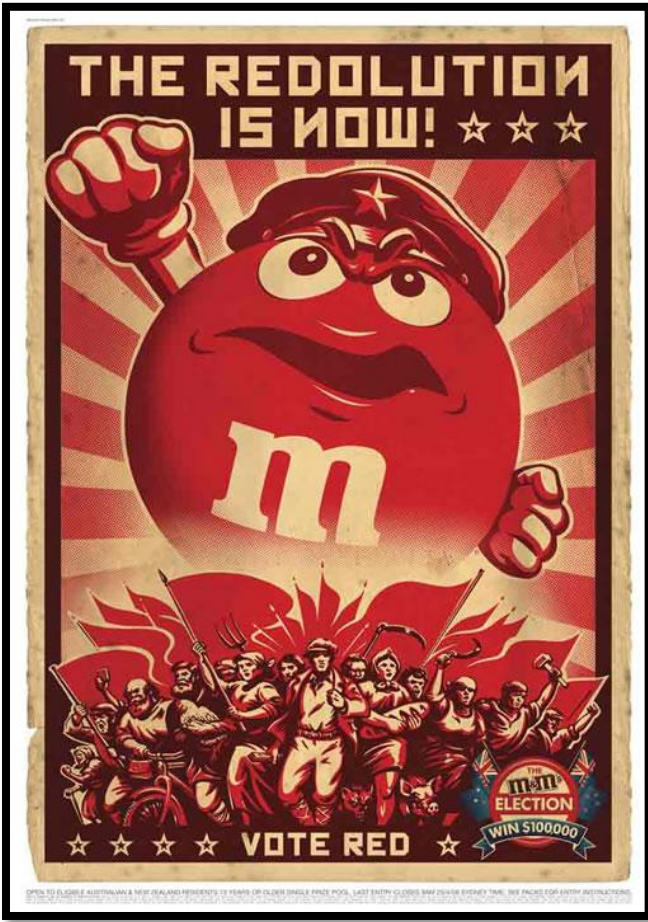

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

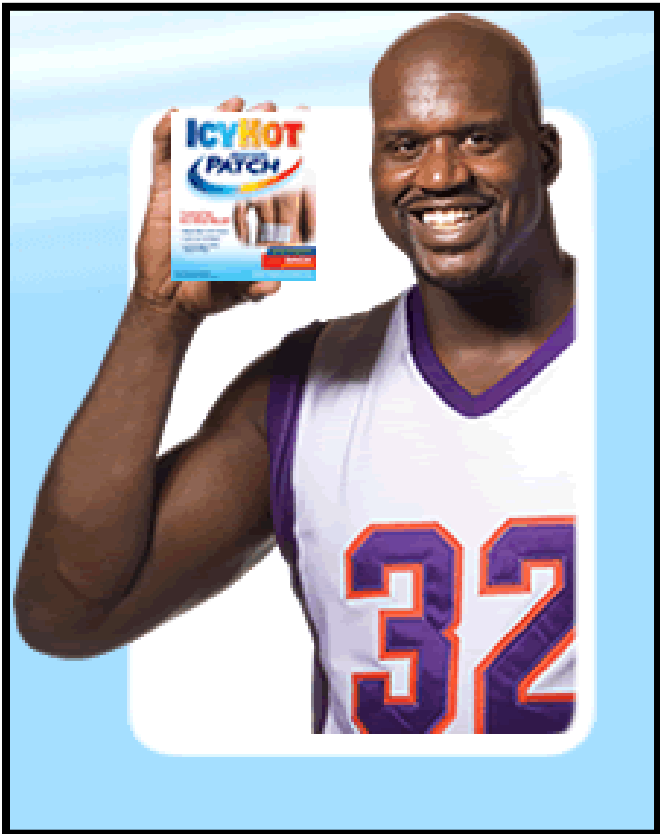

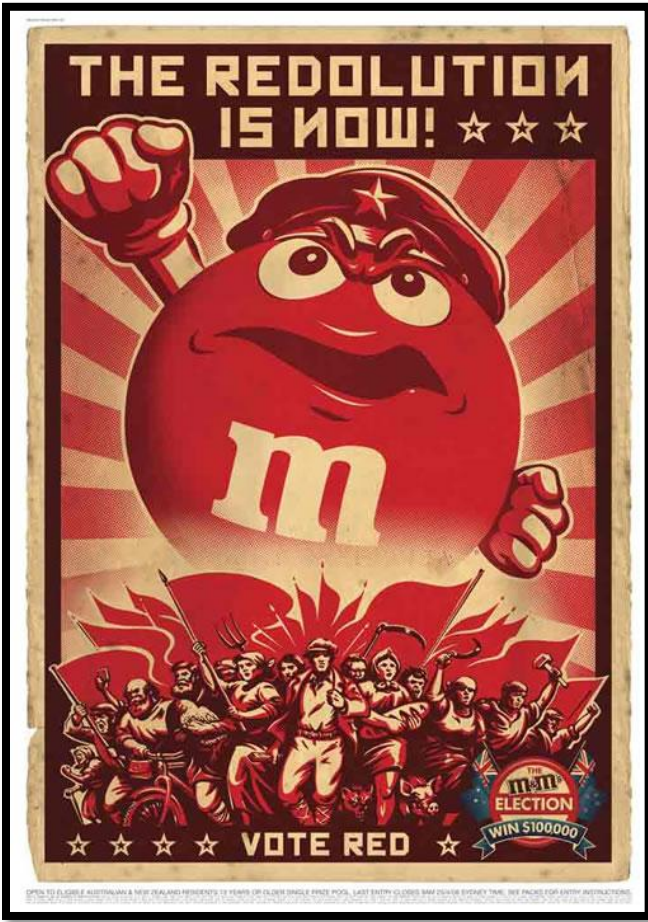

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

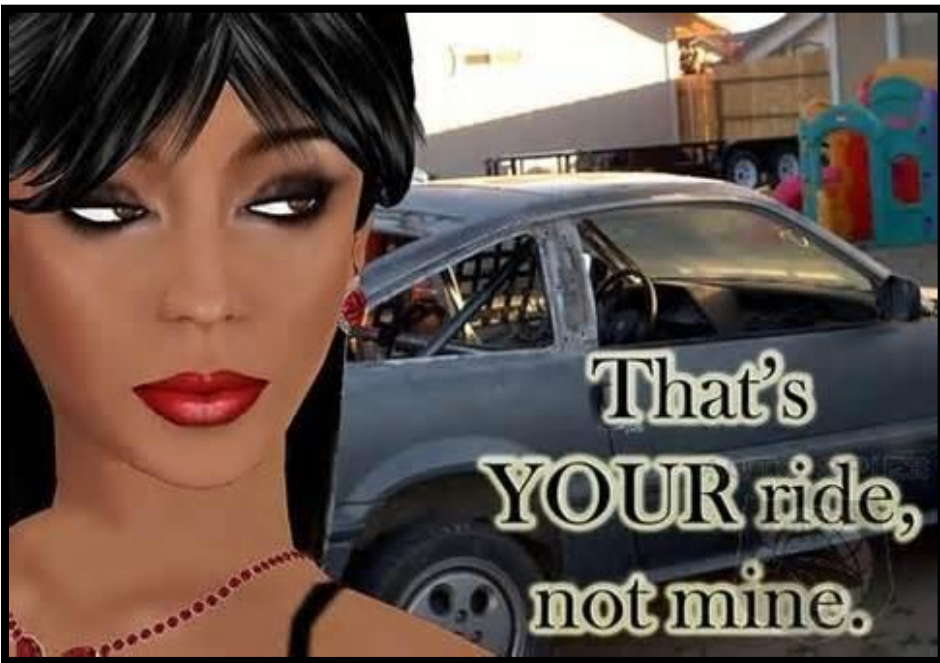

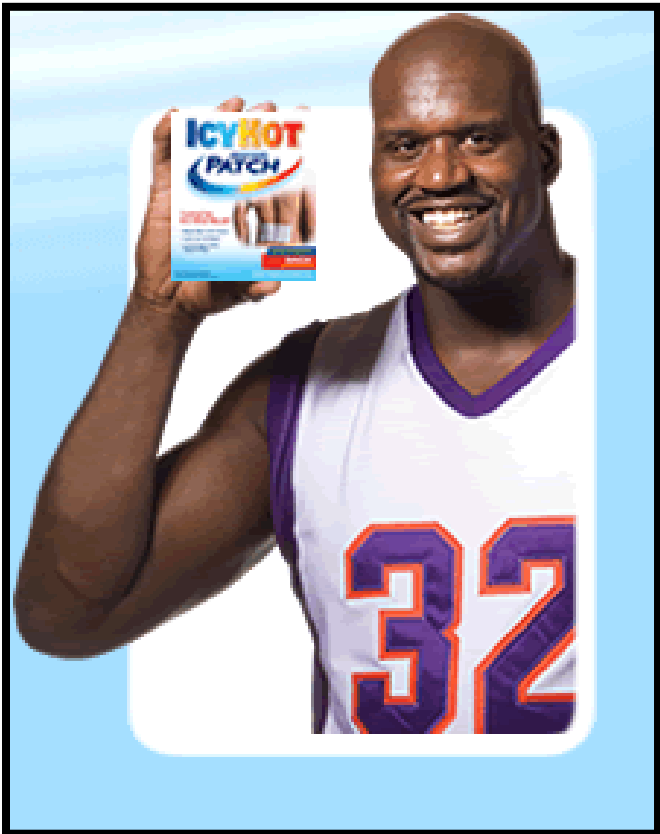

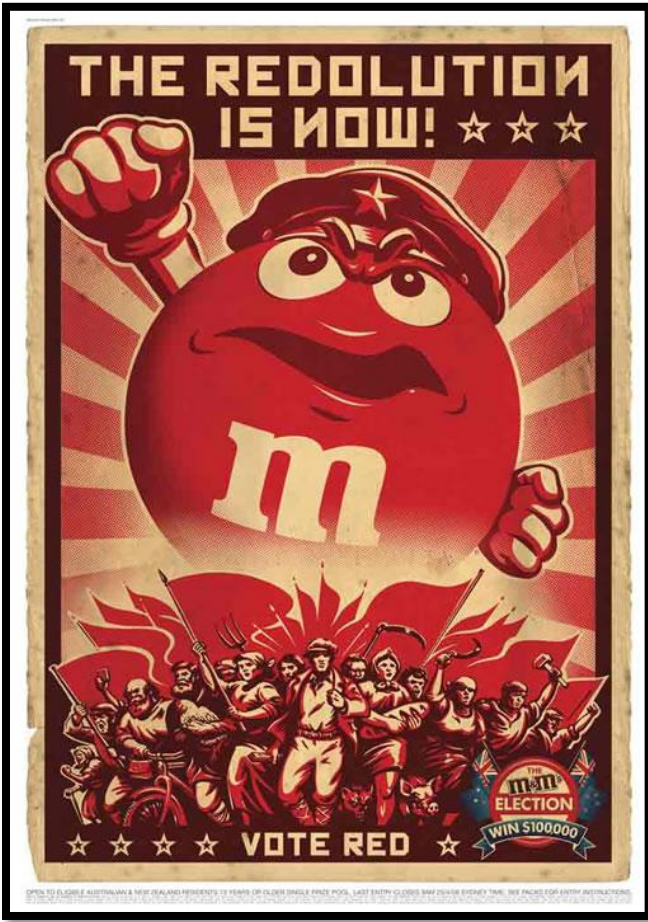

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

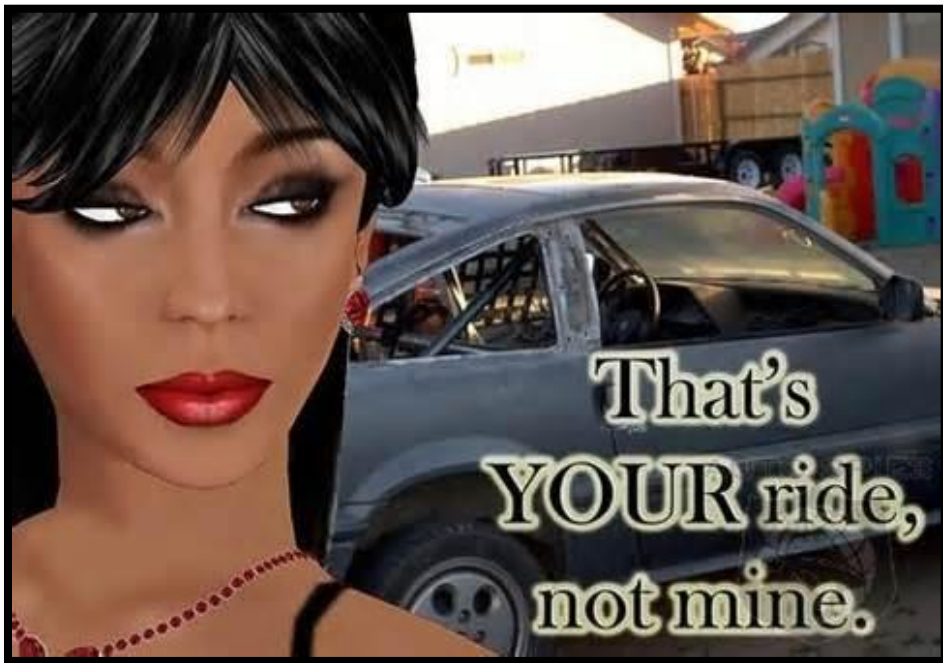

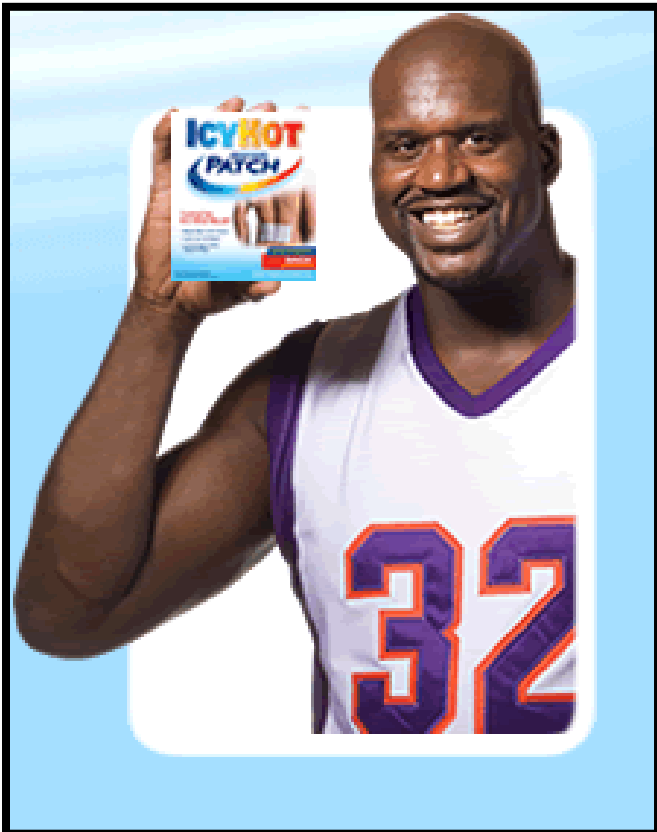

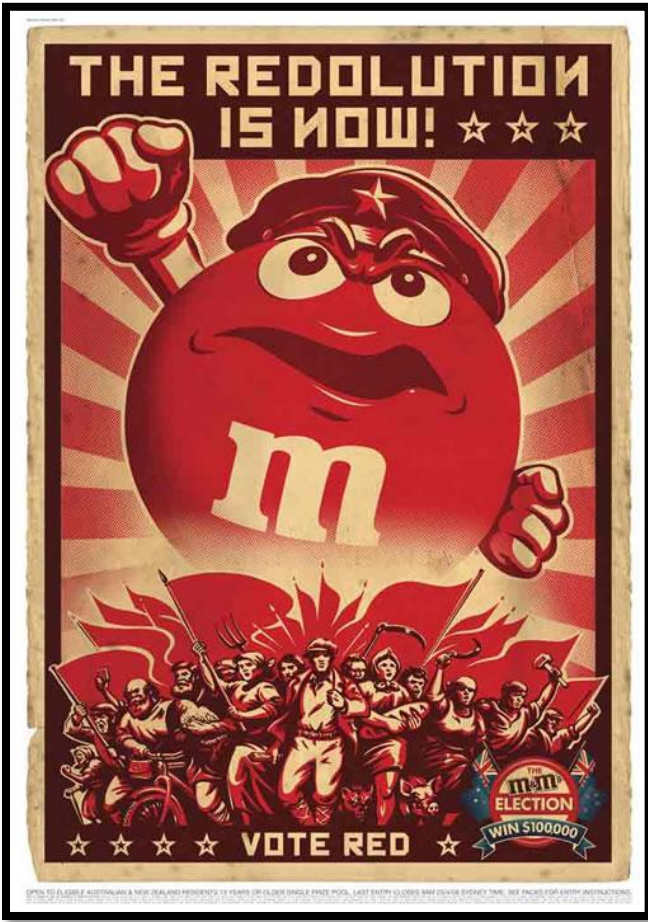

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

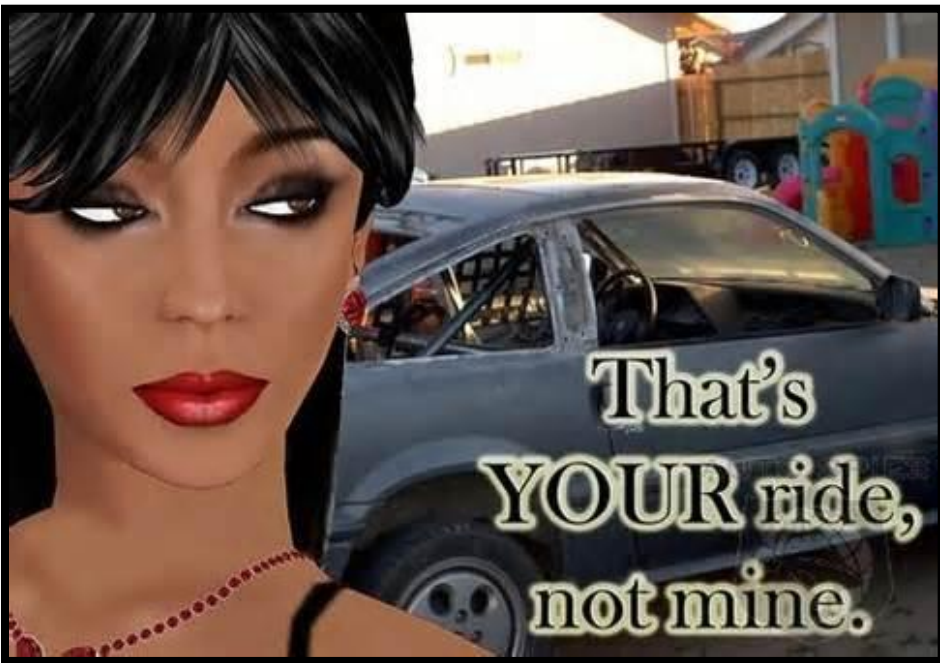

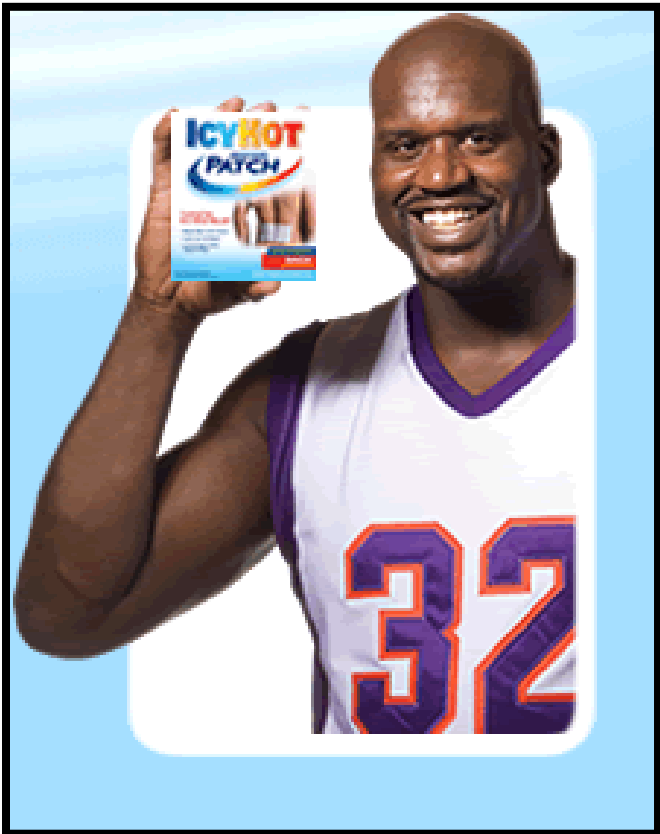

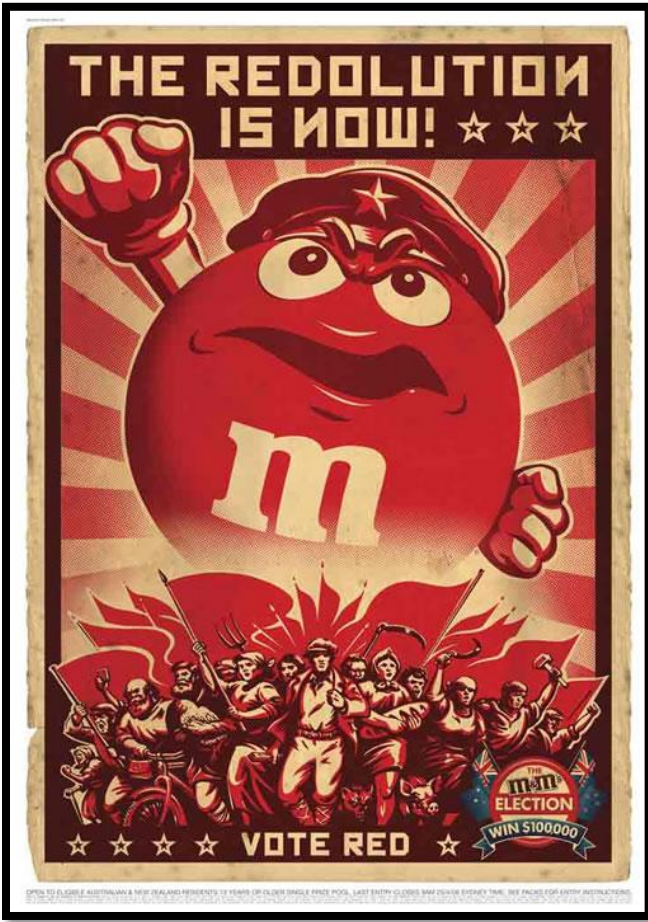

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

Teacher directions: Cut out the six separate cards and keep them together as a set (they can be clipped together or put in a plastic bag or envelope). Each student group will receive one set of cards for the Propaganda Techniques Identification Activity (Lesson 2). Enough sets are provided for up to 10 student groups.

