BOARD REPORTS

Dr. Rodriguez acknowledged the public presentations and parent comments regarding their concerns about a teacher's suicidal ideation and added that teachers and staff also experience mental health struggles. It is why we need to find a way to support the teacher, the administrator, and the staff to make things right and to recognize if we didn't do something the way we should have. He thanked all the counselors that spoke and highlighted the importance of having a smaller ratio of students to counselor. In regards to the parent that spoke on Special Education, he requested a summary of the questions that parents brought up at meetings during winter and spring of the 2021-22 school year and how those issues were addressed. In addition, he asked that we add committees to the Board Governance agenda to map out all the different committees the District has and to know which ones are appropriate for Board members to attend.

Ms. Brazer Aceves wished everyone a happy School Counselors Month. She thanked counselors and parents that spoke during public comments. Ms. Brazer Aceves shared that she attended the Orange County Department of Education sponsored School Counselor Symposium. the Superintendent, Dr. Llamas, and the team for their work around mental health and suicide prevention. There is also the issue of virtual libraries being taken down. He stated that everyone is welcomed and supported in Santa Ana. Mr. Bustos was proud to have joined Ms. Brazer Aceves at the dedication ceremony at Lydia Romero Cruz. He highlighted the suicide prevention presentations being held for parents. There is one coming on February 23 from 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. and 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. at the Rob Richardson Welcoming Center. She highlighted the Black Panthers parallel programs that were established in the 1960's. There is some debate on who came first and who influenced who, but they were major programs in 1969-1970. There were 23 cities that adopted the program through the Black Panther party and served twenty thousand kids. She thanked the Board members that were able to attend the dedication ceremony at Lydia Romero Cruz. She thanked the Board for approving the land acknowledgement resolution. She echoed other Board member's comments on the mental health of our staff and asked that we begin to have conversations to address the process by which they are being addressed. Ms. Torres acknowledged the counselors and thanked them for the cookies. Ms. Torres announced the anniversary of the Mendez vs. Westminster case in April but the case was actually argued in February.
