Principal's Message

Willard Intermediate is one amazing school. This 2019/2020 school year has been a unique and memorable one. It will definitely go down in history. Thank you for being such a strong class with willingness to change for the benefit of our school. You will always be a special 8th grade class, being that it was my first year as Principal. You have made me, the community, and staff proud. Keep your heads up and never give up! You are stronger than you think.

Pandemic Timeline

Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19)

In December 2019, the world first heard reports of a new virus originating from Wuhan province, China causing fever, cough, and shortness or breath or trouble breathing.

The virus rapidly spread in early 2020 to South Korea and Japan, then to Italy and the rest of Europe, and then to the United States.

Governments the world over announced shelter-in-place and quarantine orders as the World health Organization (WHO) declared it a pandemic.

As of this writing, public health groups continue to monitor the pandemic and provide regular updates.

The virus also forced the closure of schools across the country and will forever be remember by those affected.

Willard Graduating Class of 2020

What will you remember most about this pandemic?

“I will remember the quarantine because it was the worst.”

“TikTok videos and the memes.”

“How my parents were worried.”

“All the news.”

“How boring it was to stay indoors.”

“Will remember how empty all the stores were.”

“People taking all the toilet paper.”

“I will remember all the opportunities and fun things I missed out on.”

“The US was in danger.”

“We can’t go out or go to school.”

“I will remember all the people who died from the virus.”

“How the paper towels, toilet paper, and the hand sanitizer sold out.”

“Missing my friends.”

“School shutting down.”

“Tiger King.”

“The panicking people and staying home.”

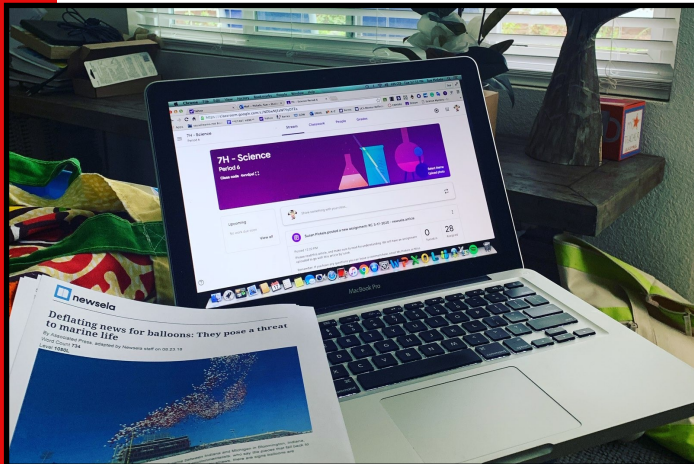

“I will remember that my cousin is putting herself at risk because she’s in the Navy.”

Distance Learning

“Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.”

-Helen Keller

“Asking nothing, leave me be, taking everything in my stride.”

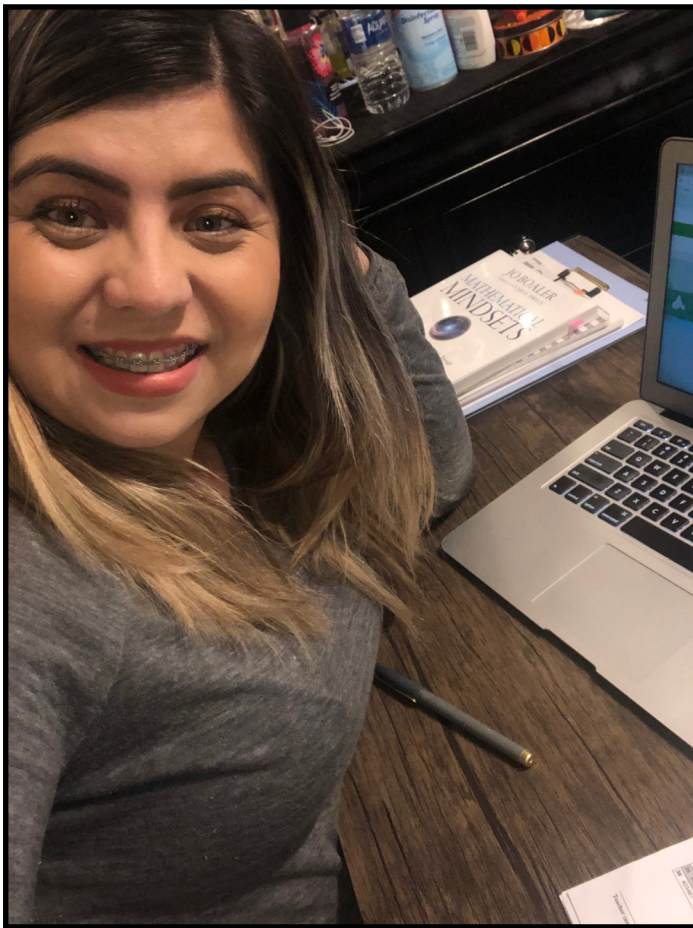

-Bon Scott

“Many of the truths we cling to depend greatly on our own point of view.”

-Sir Alec Guinness

Distance Learning

“Some people look for a beautiful place. Others make a place beautiful.”

-Hazrat Inayat Khan

“When you’re all dressed up with nowhere to go.”

-Reba McEntire

Distance Learning

“If you want to teach people a new way of thinking, don’t bother trying to teach them. Instead, give them a tool, the use of which will lead to new ways of thinking.”

-R. Buckminster Fuller

“What counts is not necessarily the size of the dog in the fight; it’s the size of the fight in the dog.”

-Dwight D. Eisenhower

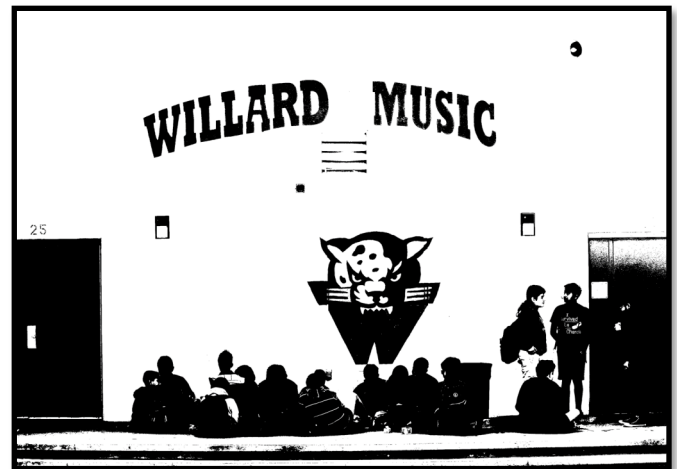

The Last Word

“Boys Soccer, I believe we would have won that tournament. Our team was one of the best that I have coached at Willard. I thoroughly enjoyed coaching you. It’s a shame, we couldn’t finish off the season. 8th graders...keep your grades up and try out for the high school team. Go get it!!”

-Mr. Arroyo

“My awesome estudiantes, you cannot win the prize without running the race. Whatever race you run, may you run with strength and courage.”

-Ms. Bailey

“BE happy! I encourage you all to explore! Try a new sport, try new foods, try a new hobby, and explore different cultures. Keep your options open and be receptive to new and exciting opportunities. Explore until you find the thing that makes you burst at the seams with happiness! Find your happy!”

-Mrs. Landry

The Last Word

“My wonderful sixth graders... You are amazing and I’m sorry we did not get a chance to finish off the year as planned. Always be brave, loving, kind, and NEVER stop learning! Cornell Notes ROCK!”

-Mr. Cervantes

-P.S. I LOVE burritos!

“I was obliged to be industrious. Whoever is equally industrious will succeed . . . equally well.”

-Johann Sebastian Bach

“To all of my students, I hope that after a good summer break you are all able to return to the industriousness that will enable you to succeed. Hard work is the key to success. Don’t sell yourself short of greatness.”

-Schubert

“Students! I just wanted to say I miss you all and believe in each and every one of you. You are all amazing and I am so proud of you. Congratulations to you 8th graders and I look forward to seeing you all soon!”

-Mrs. Kilian

The Last Word

“8th graders... I will miss you! Have fun in High School. Keep on going and always do your best. Congratulations!!”

-Mr. Mattila

“Remember when it comes to a fraction there is a fine line between a numerator and a denominator.”

-Mr. Faust

“If it was easy, everyone would be fit. But it's not, it's dedication and hard work!! Don't let the challenge prevent you from reaching your goal. The tough part is getting started. Once you do, it becomes easier by the day. Gradually make that change.....you'll have more confidence and feel so much better. So let's get it!!!

You'll thank me later! 👍😊😁”

-Mr. Arroyo

“You have to be willing to be bad at it in order to get good at it.”

-Mary Going

“In the beginning, things are not always easy: whether it is solving for x or learning a new trick on your skateboard or learning a new TikTok dance, but if you put in effort and time, I know that you will succeed. Best of luck Willard Class of 2020!”

-Ms. Lopez

The Last Word

“Always remember, you are braver than you believe.
Stronger than you seem. Smarter than you think and loved more than you know.”

-A.A. Milne

“Always believe in yourself and never doubt who you are and what you are capable of accomplishing!
Congratulations Willard Class of 2020.”

-Ms. Brito

“Love all, trust few, and do wrong to none.”

-William Shakespeare

“Don’t let the unkind people in this world change you.
Be courageous enough to suck at something new, you may end up being quite great at it. Push through the fear and find out who you are meant to be and always believe in yourself
just like I do.”

-Ms. Randall

“OH YEAH!!!”

-Mr. Faust

“The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.”

-Eleanor Roosevelt

“Don’t ever stop believing in yourself and your dreams. Congratulations class of 2020.”

-  Ms. O’Neill

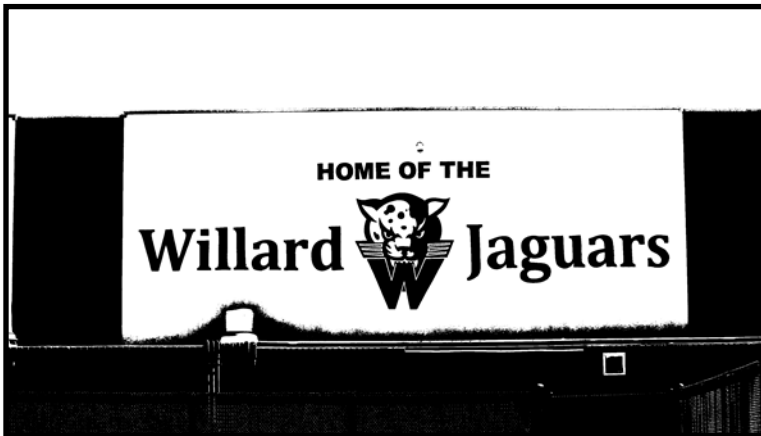

The Last Word

“There are three types of people in this world. Those that understand Math and those that don't.”

-Mr. Faust

“Hello Artists! I have absolutely enjoyed creating amazing works of art with you this year. I will miss our serious discussions about kitties and Disney. You have all been such amazing students and brought so much laughter to all of my classes. Thank you for all the fun memories!”

-Ms. Doane

“Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be?”

-Mariane Williamson

“My biggest wish for you all is: to know that hard-work gets you everywhere, and that it's ok to SHINE. I care more than you know...”

-Kanouse

The Last Word

“Never let the fear of striking out, keep you from playing the game.”

-Babe Ruth

“Whether it is a sport or a new life challenge, do not let the fear of failure stop you from pursuing your dreams!

Always try your best at whatever it is you choose to do in the future, never let fear stop you from giving it your all!”

-Ms. Brito

“All our dreams can come true...if we have the courage to pursue them.”

-Walt Disney

“Getting started won't be easy, but if you get past your fears of starting you will find that you can accomplish anything you set your mind to. Try that new club, make that new friend and never stop learning. I believe in you and your dreams.”

-Mrs. Ortega

The Last Word

“To My 2019/2020 6th Graders, I truly enjoyed teaching you this year. I want each one of you to know that I know how amazing you are and that you can achieve your dreams. Remember what I told you: ‘Just try your best and see what will happen!’ I look forward to seeing you next school year!”

-Ms. Hurtado

“‘Adapt and Overcome.’ Always rise to the challenge and give it your best Jaguars! Proud of you all.”

-Mr. Worrell

“Tough times don’t last... tough people do.”

-Robert Schuller

“Mr. Valdez here hoping you find the time to make lemons into lemonade. Just know all of the staff here at Willard are here for you.”

-Mr. Valdez

“Whether you think you can or you can’t, you’re right.”

-Henry Ford

“Either way, remember Ms. Nagle believes in you!”

-Ms. Nagle

The Last Word

“8th graders....I wish you the best in High School. Represent us well and make us proud.....Go Jags!”

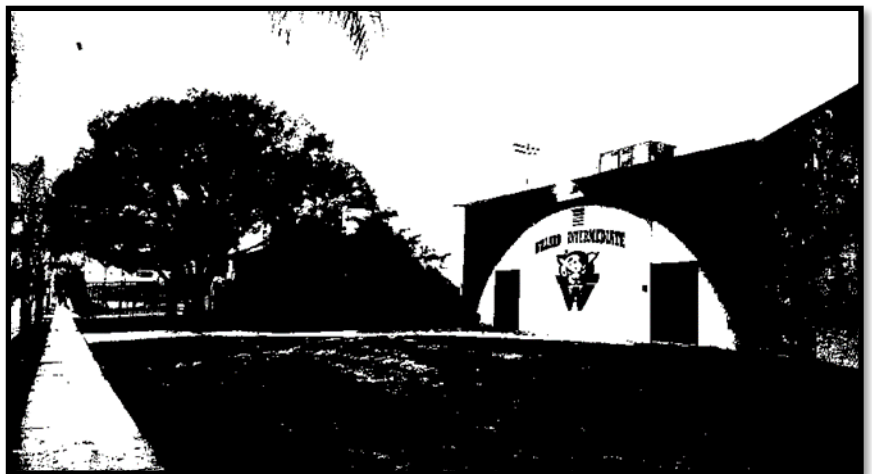

-Mr. Arroyo

“Yeeeeeeeeaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhh BUDDY!!!”

-Mr. Faust

“This is the way.”

-Din Djarin

“Don't let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.”

-John Wooden

“You all have it in you to do amazing things, you just have to believe in yourself.

Congratulations to the Willard Class of 2020.”

-Ms. Fernandez

“It has been a pleasure working with all of you. I wish our in-class time had not been cut short, though I am proud of how many of you kept on working through to the end of the year. You are great students, and wonderful people.”

-Mr. Petrie

The Last Word

“Even though we only got to spend a short amount of time together, I enjoyed working with you all. Thank you for giving me your best, and I wish you all the happiness and success that life has in front of you!”

-Mr. Turner

“The end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time.”

-T.S. Eliot

“To all the Willard students and staff, thank you. Stay amazing, stay safe, and stay wild.”

-Mr./Ranger Marx
