Sexual Harassment

Prohibited sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, unwanted requests for sexual favors or other unwanted verbal, visual or physical conduct of a sexual nature made against another person of the same or opposite gender, in the work or educational setting when: (E.C. 212.5; CCR 4916)

1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or educational environment; or of adversely affecting the other individual's evaluation, advancement, assigned duties, or any other condition of employment or career development.
4. Submission to or rejection of the conduct by the other individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting him/her regarding benefits, services, honors, programs or activities available at or through the district.

Other examples of sexual harassment, whether committed by a supervisor or any other employee, are:

1. Verbal Conduct such as sexual slurs, epithets, derogatory comments or unwanted sexual advances, propositions, flirtations or comments, or jokes, or graphic verbal comments about an individual's body, or overly personal conversation, or pressure for sexual activities or spreading rumors.
2. Visual Conduct such as sexually derogatory posters, cartoons, drawings, jokes or gestures, graffiti or displaying sexually suggestive objects, or sexually explicit e-mails or using sexual computer screen savers.
3. Physical Conduct such as assault, cornering or blocking normal movement, unwelcome sexual leering, or interfere with work directed at an employee because of the employee's gender or touching an individual's body or clothes in a sexual way.
4. Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a job or avoid some other loss and offers of job benefits in return for sexual favors.
5. Retaliation for reporting harassment or threatening to report harassment or for participating in the investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment.

It is unlawful for males to sexually harass females or other males, and for females to harass males or other females.
