

Creative Booth & Novice Booth

Competition Rules

Each Virtual Enterprise Company is asked to design and display a Sales Booth at the San Diego Exhibition for their Virtual Enterprises goods and services to be sold. No real product or real money is to be exchanged: only official VEI credit cards and VEI bank transactions are allowed. Companies new to the VE program, or with 1st year teachers, will be placed in the Novice category. The rubrics are the same.

GUIDELINES:

- Each company will design and display a booth at the Exhibition.
- The display booth number must be clearly displayed on the back drape.
- Displays stay within the booth dimensions.
- All students can participate in booth construction and display at the Trade Show.
- Adults are NOT allowed to assist in set up or operation of the booth.
- No helium balloons.
- Decorations or displays must not completely block the sides of the booth. Displays or decorations may obstruct up to, but NOT more than, 50% of either side of the booth. Over 50% is unfair for the booths to either side of yours. This rule violation will cause disqualification. If you are not sure you are within the regulation, you may request approval by the trade show coordinator (Mr. McFarland).
- VE companies sharing a back pipes and drapes with another VE company on the opposite side should exercise courtesy and professionalism when hanging signs and decorations or projecting images. Please voice any concerns in a courteous and professional manner or contact Mr. McFarland for assistance.
- Booth must be completed by 9:45 AM for judging.

Please review the competition Scoring Sheets for more detailed information on the areas to be scored.

BOOTH DESIGN OVERVIEW

Each company is asked to design and build out a booth at a Virtual Enterprises International Trade Show. The trade show booth allows companies to highlight their product(s) and/or service(s) and to increase sales. All company employees can participate in booth construction and display at the Trade Show.

Guidelines

- Content: Booths should uniquely reflect the company and its product(s)/service(s); Booths should aim to grab attention to promote sales while always maintaining professionalism.
- Presentation: Employees of each company will design and display a booth to increase sales of their product(s) and/or service(s) at the Trade Show during specified trading hours; The booth must be adequately staffed during the trading session.

Please refer to the competition host for specific guidelines related to your event. All Trade Show guidelines on height, width, and materials used must be followed. During setup, adjustments can be made to meet local guidelines. Failure to adhere to guidelines may cause booth disqualification from the event.
