

Of Mice and Men

Chapter One

Unit 3: Dreams and Aspirations

- George and Lennie are two migrant workers who are atypical.
- Even though they are living in poverty, it does not stop them from having dreams and aspirations.
- Today's lesson will focus on the function of dreams: Why do they, or anyone for that matter, have dreams and aspirations?
- As always, music and songs are great way to explore.

“Big Rock Candy Mountain”

O Brother Where For Art Thou (2000)

Go to StudySync

to complete a quick write comparing the song with the quote from the book