Course Description

CPM stands for College Preparatory Math, which puts the focus on a student driven classroom. Students will be working in teams the whole year, and that allows the students to create a higher level of understanding. This perfectly aligns with Common Core, and will prepare students for MAP and SBAC testing.

Grading Policy:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 65% Chapter Tests and Final Exam</li><li>• 20% Classwork and Homework</li><li>• 10% Team Tests (one per chapter)</li><li>• 5% Participation Tickets</li></ul>	Grades A: 90 -100% B: 80 - 89% C: 70 - 79% D: 65 - 69% F: 0 - 64%
---	---

Review + Preview (Homework):

- Assigned everyday, Monday - Friday
- Found in E-Book
- Graded on 4 point Scale
- Is corrected the next day in the beginning of class

Re-takes:

- Only on Chapter Tests
- Maximum Score 75%
- Retake requires one mandatory tutoring
- Up to two chances

Honestly and Integrity:

- Cheating on any form of test or homework will result in a zero, and further consequences

Tutoring:

- All Algebra 1 teachers offer tutoring on specific day and time, from morning to after school. Visit my class webpage to view the tutoring schedule.

Aeries:

- Check aeries regularly, for your child’s performance in all their classes. Email me if you have any questions about missing assignments or retakes.

Materials to bring everyday:

- Bound notebook for lessons and homework (graphing notebook preferred)
- Chromebook for E-book
- One 3-ring binder with a section for math
- Pencil and Eraser

Technology:

- Chromebooks are to be brought to class everyday, charged.
- Only a few outlets are accessible in the class, this is why they must be brought charged.

Stay Connected:

- Receive helpful and important announcements by Mrs. Vivanco through text messages without giving away your number. It is easier to communicate than email with Ms. Flores
- If you have unlimited texting it is free to get and send text messages
- If you don’t have unlimited texting. Get the app instead it is called
