

SAUSD Media Consent Form

The Santa Ana Unified School District is fortunate to attract much positive publicity about our schools, students and staff. To keep our community better informed about what's happening in our schools, we use photos or recordings of students and their work samples on the Internet and in yearbooks, interviews, and student or district publications. In addition, we also often allow the local news media to take photos or record our students as they work on classroom projects, participate in extracurricular activities or receive recognition for accomplishments.
