the trees
the children
Let's Review:

the

trees
the children
the swings
the slide
the park
Dear Parents,
Your child will be bringing these pre-decodable books home in their homework folder. Please store them in the large brown envelope we have provided. Have your kinder student practice reading these little books on a daily basis. This will help them to build fluency, an important skill. They will also have an opportunity to practice reading the sight words necessary for this grade level.