

AP English Literature

Ms. Statler & Ms. Polydoros

Ms. Statler and Ms. Polydoros work together to design and implement a cohesive AP Curriculum.

Welcome!

Congratulations on taking AP English Literature, a college-level course in literature and composition! A great deal will be asked of you this year, and we are here to support you.

UNITS OF STUDY

- The Search for Identity*
- The Search for Identity II: Creativity*
- The Search for Identity III: The Impact of the Past upon the Future*
- The Search for Truth*
- Amor Vincit Omnia*
- Loss and Alienation*

SUPPLIES

- Writing Utensil
- Chromebook--MUST be charged. You cannot use a personal computer.
- Paper

Class Expectations

Beginning of Class → Check the agenda and record homework.

During Class → Keep your cell phone away unless directed to have it out. Listen, collaborate, and ask questions.

After Class → Clean up your area, pack up your belongings, and thank your group.

"Literature is the question minus the answer." Roland Barth

Late Work

As for late work, please work to avoid it. Meeting deadlines is a skill that will help students in high school and beyond, and both Ms. Statler and Ms. Polydoros will give you feedback on your work, and they have allotted certain time to do that.

Late work is subject to a deduction of points, and must be completed within the 6-week grading window.

IF I AM ABSENT?

When you are absent, please check the daily agenda slides before coming to class and work to complete any assignments you can during the absence. We are aware that emergencies may occur or other prohibiting circumstances may keep you from completing the occasional assignment on time, so please communicate with your teacher if that occurs.

AP TEST IS MAY 9

Contact Info

✉ Email: monique.statler@sausdlearns.net

lori.polydoros@sausdlearns.net

Remind codes to be posted in Google Classroom

Expectations

- *Have materials ready.
- *Be on time to class daily.
- *Be courteous and respectful toward classmates and others (substitute teachers, guests, etc.) at all times.
- *Come to class with an open mind and a willingness to learn.
- *Maintain academic honesty. Sharing work, rephrasing ideas without citing, cutting and pasting material without attribution to the author, copying work, restating someone else's work, passing someone else's work as your own are just a few examples of academic dishonesty.

I have read and I understand the procedures and expectations for this class.

Student Signature

Parent Signature